we, of Elkhart High,

met the demands of these changing times,

Loyalty, Integrity, Courage, Faith

Suddenly, into the midst of our carefree lives came a global war, big, far-reaching.
Instead of plans for industry or college,
We revised our courses and prepared for war.
It was all bewildering, confusing, frightening . . .
The world we once knew was torn from our grasp
In this new feeling of insecurity, what could we count on?

As we looked ahead
we began to see those things,
those parts of our American heritage —
Loyalty, integrity, courage, and faith — that we would take with us into the better world of tomorrow.

War Activities Dominated Our Year

In this second year of the war, our courses were revised to include aeronautics, special math, blue print reading, and "toughening" courses in physical ed. Girls were admitted to machine shop classes and other vocational courses. Many other activities are shown on this and following pages; a most important one was the sales of war stamps and bonds. (On Dec. 7, 1942, we purchased $506.70.)

Loyalty to Our Flag

inspired us to carry on our war program. Our musicians gave all groups of departing draftees a send-off of cheerful military music. Our assembly programs thru songs, movies, plays and speeches, were constant reminders of the part we

Students and faculty worked together on all our war projects: the physical fitness boys organized a marching corps; we studied first aid; we collected for the victory book campaign; we sent magazines to boys overseas; we contributed to both local and distant canteens; we planned victory gar-

Even our athletic program, one of the most vitalizing parts of the school life, was affected when several prominent athletes were drafted before finishing their careers on courts and playing fields.

The Little Things of Life - They, Too, Go On

Even with the weight of war on our shoulders, we did not lose our American sense of humor and our desire for gaiety. In spite of the changing scenes, we still carried on with the parties, plays, and dances. These little things keep up the hope of America. They must be and will be preserved.

You and Your Talents, Trades and Thoughts:

No matter what our part is in the future . . . the immediate future or that time when the world is free . . . we have been preparing for it in these halls and class rooms. Even in the present confusion, we can see courses and subjects that will be far reaching. In these directions we build, mentally and physically, for tomorrow's world.

Education for Effective Living

We plan our courses under the guidance of capable leaders. They straighten out our programs and give us the advice that we need so many times . . . We must be trained not on theory alone, for in the world to come, we will face problems that need to be met with practicality . . . a widely varied curriculum offers us . . . the background necessary for an intelligent citizenship.

Skills, Talents, and Trades

in addition to theory and fact, are important in preparing us for the world of tomorrow. In music, art, and dramatics departments, the ones with talent move ahead. New techniques and methods of delivery are taught. In the commercial and

Administration

To keep the mechanics of the high school running smoothly, the administration devotes hours of time and years of experience. The war program has added new courses, new problems, and a great many extra duties. These have increased the load which Mr. Holdeman and his staff so ably carry.

Mr. Church is largely responsible for the widening of the curriculum and the high rank our school holds in the state, especially in the war program.

History of Looking back on the history of the class of '43, we see ourselves as sophomores organizing in the fall of '40. At our first meeting class sponsors were nominated, with Miss Bandow and Mr. Mater chosen as the result of the voting through the various sophomore home rooms. On November 15, 1940, the class of '43 met in the auditorium, at which time the following officers were elected: Russell Lerner, president; Pauline Dahos, vice-president; Juanita Peters, secretary; Robert Lyon, treasurer; Jean Diener and Robert Rayl, social chairmen; Richard Miceli, Serg.-at-arms.

Our first class party, a nautical party, was held in the cafeteria January 11, 1941. Dancing to the music of Joe Kies's band and a planned program were the entertainment. Carrying out the party theme, decorations and novelties were nautical. Refreshments of ice cream bars, cokes, and cookies were served.

The next semester, in the spring of '41, brought in new officers for the sophomore class. The election was held Friday morning, February 14, in the auditorium. The following people were chosen: Russell Lerner, president; Robert Frederick, vice-president; Juanita Peters, secretary; Page Glase, treasurer; Jean Diener and John Jeskewich, program chairmen; Richard Miceli, sergt.-at-arms.

In March of '41 it was necessary for our class to meet with Mr. Mater to choose a new co-sponsor. Miss Bandow had resigned to be married. Miss Marie Siner was chosen to replace Miss Bandow. From then on, our two class sponsors, Miss Siner and Mr. Mater, have proven themselves capable sponsors and have guided us, wisely and well, throughout our school years.

May 8, 1941, the Sophomore class held a Sweater Hop in the gymnasium. Only students sporting sweaters were admitted to the party. Dancing to Joe Kies's band and games comprised the entertainment; cokes, cookies, and ice-cream were served. The following fall, on Monday, October 31, 1941, as the junior class met in the gym to nominate officers. Five nominations for each office were made from the floor and recorded by the secretary. After school that day, the nominating committee, appointed by the class sponsors, prepared the ticket. The following officers were elected by the members of the class: Charles Cole, president; Neal Decker vice-president; Juanita Peters, secretary; Jack Rowe, treasurer; Catherine Kipka and Robert Frederick, social chairmen, Richard Miceli, serg.-at-arms.

Our class jewelry was selected by a group of juniors in the library on the evening of October 28, 1941. We chose a ring of modernistic design with an eagle crest.

December 12, 1941, was the date of a Christmas party for all juniors. The program included an accordian solo by Elizabeth Clayton and selections played on the bagpipes by Marilyn Artley. Tom Gorsuch's band furnished the music for the party. Refreshments consisted of sandwiches, cokes, and potato chips.

On February 20 the class met to elect our spring semester officers: Charles Cole, president; Irvin Zavatsky, vice-president; Betty Flanders, secretary; Jack Rowe, treasurer; Phyllis Platt and Robert Frederick, social chairmen.

On March 13, members of the junior class proved their capability as actors by presenting "June Mad" a three act comedy. Those playing the leads were Nancy Best and Joseph Rench. This same day, Friday, March 13, did not prove unlucky for us juniors, as we also proved ourselves capable, by publishing Junior Pennant Weekly.

Our first prom on May 31, 1943 climaxed the junior year. Three hundred excited young people danced to the music of Jack Russell. In keeping with the theme of the "Tropical Isle," leas were worn with our formal dress.

In the fall of 1942, 384 seniors came back to E.H.S., determined to make this last year a great big one. This year we divided the senior class and elected January and June officers. Officers for the January class were: Melvin Kroeder, president; Elizabeth Gustafson, vice-president; Juanita Peters, secretary; Jack Rowe, treasurer; Gerry Humecke and Roy Weideman, social chairmen. Those elected for the June Class were: Charles Cole, president; James Peterson, vice-president; Maxine Eppers, secretary; Robert Frederick, treasurer; Phyllis Platt and Joseph Rench, social chairmen.

Our last party, the traditional "Kiddie" party, was held in the cafeteria December 5, 1942. Games, dancing, and refreshments were enjoyed. Prizes for the best costumes went to Edward LaRocque and Phyllis Snyder; for the most humorous costumes, Phyllis Platt and Bill Burrows.

Caps and gowns were chosen in the first semester by the cap and gown committee who were: Elizabeth Gustafson, Jack Rowe, Juanita Peters, Dick McDowell, Melvin Kroeder, Phyllis Platt, June Oliver, James Peterson, Neal Decker, and Charles Cole. Announcements were chosen by a committee composed of Gerry Humecke, Jeannetta Shaw, Melvin Kroeder, Marcia Frye, Marcelle Hutchenreuter, Robert Frederick, Mary Kate Patterson, and Charles Cole.

"Reminiscing" was the theme of the January Senior Day program which was given before the student body on January 21, 1943.

For our senior play we chose "The Barretts" which we presented on May 14 under the direction of Mr. Ben Hudelson. The beautiful costumes, the setting, and the wonderful acting of the cast made every senior proud.

May was a busy month for us with all the senior activities that were planned. These included: senior day on May 27, junior-senior prom Saturday, May 29, when we were guests of the junior class, baccalaureate services in the high school auditorium, Sunday, May 30, the senior girls' tea on June 2, and graduation exercises at Rice Field on June 3.

The commencement exercises, always impressive, were made more so this year when, as the names of graduates were read, diplomas were awarded to some boys who were already in the armed forces.

Class of '44

The Juniors look forward, in this year of uncertainty, to new experiences, carrying with them their traditions . . . the class play . . . class jewelry . . . the prom . . .

On October 12, 1942, the class of '44 met to elect their first semester class officers: President, John Longfellow; Vice-President, Jim Ebersole; Secretary, Eileen Simons; Treasurer, Carol Simmons; Social Chairmen, Tom Juday and Virginia Miceli.

Under the leadership of their sponsors, Mrs. Sickels and Mrs. Jordan, the spring semester class officers were elected as follows: President, John Longfellow; Vice-President, Tom Juday; Secretary, Carold Simmons; Treasurer, Dick Hill; Social Chairmen, Eileen Simons and Jim Ebersole.

Same scene three hours later . . . Good morning . . . We don't believe it, either . . . Put yours in n ext year, boys . . . No loitering, please . . . Effects of gas rationing . . . 5 and 48 stars.

June Class of '44

In an appropriate patriotic note, the juniors began their year with a class party held in the high school cafeteria.

A committee consisting of John Longfellow Jr., Mary K. Stemm, Dick Long, Margery Sickels, Nan Black, John Ball, Rayman Carlson, and Russell Noss selected the designs for the rings and pins for the class . . . a plain gold ring of simple design with a recessed crest.

The junior class play, "Ever Since Eve," under the direction of Mr. Ben Hudelson, was presented March 12. Juniors who played important roles were: Bill Copenhaver, Beverly Miller, Joan Denton, Eugene Ellis, Margaret Maxon, Phyllis Himebaugh, Tom Artley, Mary Ann Stout, and Donald Dow. Other juniors took minor parts, and many class members helped with directing, props, scenery, programs, and ticket sales.

Following the custom of past years, a staff from the class of '44 took charge of the Junior Pennant with Bill Frink acting as Editor in Chief.

Also, as is the custom, they swelled their treasury by selling candy, cokes, etc. at the Mishawaka-Elkhart game.

The prom, big moment in the social life of the juniors and seniors, was held in the Hotel Elkhart with the theme, Arabian Nights, on Saturday, May 29.

Committee chairmen who helped make this occasion a success were: PROGRAMS . . . Bill Copenhaver; FAVORS . . . Willa Allen; MUSIC . . . Sally Wambaugh; DECORATIONS . . . Doris Volkmann; INVITATIONS . . . Eileen Simmons; PUBLICITY . . . Dick Treckelo; REFRESHMENTS . . . Bill Frink. A number of faculty members and parents were invited guests.

He Stoops to Conquer . . . The Polar Bear and the Face . . . A Camera Hog, a Joe, and a Dullard . . . Let's Clean Up Those Jokes, Girls. . . Noon Hour Bull Session . . . Lost — Four Bodies . . .

Officers of the Sophomore class

The Class of '45

You can't beat those sophs! They have athletes, journalists, musicians, scholars, and more beautiful gals than any sophomore class in EHS history.

In their first meeting as class, they chose Miss Clendenen and Mr. Niblock as their sponsors. Under the leadership of their new sponsors, the class was organized and the following officers were elected: President, Bob Stackhouse; Vice-President, Morris Clement; Secretary, Marlyn King; Treasurer, Dick Hagans; Social Chairmen, Mary Lou Niblock and Bob Weldy.

Odd men . . . Double trouble or two gals . . . Glam the glamorous sophs . . . Two under the stars. . . C'est la guerre . . . The shawl fad, on models . . . Our camera man caught some actually at work.

Class of '45

A party, held in the gym March 26, was the first social activity. This helped break the ice, and made the members of the class better acquainted. A well-planned floor show and plenty of entertainment made their first party a memorable occasion.

The sophomore year is a year of beginnings. The boys go out for sports . . . track, football, baseball, tennis . . . and work for their places on the varsity. Some of the more ambitious sophs get jobs on the Pennant Weekly as reporters, feature writers, and ad solicitors. Sophs try for band and orchestra, join clubs, develop initiative and self-confidence.

The school looks to this class for the football and basketball captains, their Student Council presidents, their Weekly and Annual editors . . . their actors, their artists . . . their leaders in '45.

Beauty and brains, too . . . Wonder if they know what it means . . . Ah-ah-ah—watch those pounds. . . Keep that money undercover, boys. How many see. . . . Laugh and the world laughs with you . . . I've heard that song before, Hagans

There Will Be Loyalty

a friend is a guy,

who can always be depended on,

even in matters of balancing the budget.

And here, in our clubs, our parties, our concerts, our plays

we meet old friends,

National Honor Society

Feeling the need for a more active part in service to the school, the National Honor Society, composed of thirty members, has had a successful year in promoting scholarship, leadership, and citizenship.

This year's project of the society included: enrollment of incoming students, the annual used-book sale, concessions at games, and chili supper.

While serving the school in various ways, the club also hoped to be serving their country. This hope was carried out when money and supplies were donated to the local War Mother's Canteen.

The tutoring system, established last year, was continued this year and gave aid to students desiring help in any of their subjects.

Another project was started this year, that of higher attendance during the school year. A large felt banner with the words "Honor In Attendance" was presented to the home room with the highest percentage of attendance for each six weeks period.

Last semester's officers were: Jim Winter, president; Mary Kate Patterson, vice-president; Maxine Eppers, secretary; and Bob Frederick, treasurer.

This semester's officers are: Dick Crowley, president; Elizabeth Larson, vice-president; Marcia Frye, secretary; and Lee Strong, treasurer.

Misses Busche and Broughton are co-sponsors.

Whether inspired by the "joining fever" or interested in the clubs themselves,

The Student Council

The Student Council is an organization in which all students of Elkhart Senior High are represented. This organization functions through home room delegates who make up the Council membership. Each problem brought before the Council is discussed and if necessary, a committee is appointed to work it out. Two of the outstanding committees are: the Traffic Committee, which has been instrumental in regulating hall problems and the Chartering Committees which charters each club in the high school. In honor of the former students serving our country in the Armed Forces one committee planned a memorial plaque for them. Perhaps the highlight of the Student Council activities was sponsoring the purchase of the Hammond Organ. The Student Council and faculty work in close harmony to further the best interests of the school and to bring about a more unified school spirit.

The officers are elected each new semester. Those for the fall semester of 1942 were: Charles Cole, president; John Longfellow Jr., vice-president; Carol Simmons, secretary; Russell Lerner, treasurer; Nancy Wambaugh, parliamentarian; Dean B. Smith, Mrs. A. Earhart, sponsors.

Girl Reserves

This year the Senior Girl Reserves' activities have been many and varied, due to their effort in helping in the all-out victory drive. They were made acquainted with the various war activities in the community through speakers from women's groups such as the Motor Corps, Canteen, War Mothers, and Stamp and Bond Drives, etc. A series of interest groups on home front activities also furthered the work along this line.

The Girl Reserves and Hi-Y sponsored several dances, besides the "open houses" after many football and basketball games. These dances included the Sok Hop, Eskimo Inn, and Hayloft Hop. At the annual Christmas party the girls made and dressed stocking dolls for the pre-school children at Booker T. Washington. At the Pa, Ma, and Me, banquet, another annual social event, a victory-garden theme was carried out. The last event was the Hi-Jinks Carnival, to raise money for summer camp expenses.

Forty-one girls from Elkhart attended the Northern Indiana Conference which was held at South Bend, February 6. The worship service was conducted by Elkhart girls and was followed by a talk by Mrs. Green, from England.

The cabinet for this year has been: Jean Diener, president; Elizabeth Gustafson, first vice-president; Letitia Loshbaugh, second vice-president; Marcia Hile, secretary; Jeanne Ong, treasurer; Grace Gordon, social chairman; Willa Allen, program chairman; Dorothy Doll, service chairman; Nancy Wambaugh, corresponding secretary; Miriam Myers, music chairman; Gerry Humecke, song leader; Elizabeth Clayton, art chairman.

Hi-Y

The Father-Son banquet, sponsored by the Hi-Y, is one of the highlights of the club's activities. The annual dime line, held for the purpose of financing a Christmas party for unfortunate children; the state conference, the senior outing — these are a few of the other important events held annually by the Hi-Y's.

The Senior Hi-Y has now joined chapters with the Juniors and the Sophomores. This combined group, meeting every second Monday evening at the Y.M.C.A., has a total membership of sixty boys. With this system they hope to do much more work, have better parties, and be of more service to the school.

The last election of officers was held on March 17 at the Y.M.C.A. The officers are as follows: Page Glase, president; Bob Frederick, vice-president; Gordon Ingram, secretary; Bill Jones, treasurer; Jim Fawcett, social chairman; Bob Hafer, program chairman.

Triple-L

The members of the Triple L Club can usually be found helping at the games, putting on pep sessions, or selling novelties. These girls are under the supervision of Mrs. Boone.

Besides their work, however, the girls have also enjoyed theater parties and teas. They look forward to the annual athletic party that is held in the spring. During the year, the club also had several dime lines for the Infantile Paralysis fund and Red Cross.

Triple L stands for "Leadership", "Learning", and "Loyalty"; these three characteristics every member strives to achieve.

Last semester officers: Elizabeth Gustafson, president; Jeanne Ong, vice-president; Marcelle Hutschenreuter, secretary; Phyllis Welter, treasurer; Maxine Eppers, social chairman; Geraldine Humecke, program chairman.

Visual Education

The members of the Visual Education club are responsible for all the smooth-working movie programs we have had. They are the trained movie operators of the school. They have charge of all the films shown at assemblies and of public address equipment used for the school programs. These boys, under the instruction of Mr. Virgil Likins, have an annual banquet each year.

Films of a technical nature; for example, those used in aeronautics classes, are shown by this department. These films are used not only in daytime classes but also in the adult evening classes. The club also has charge of the making and showing of all song slides.

The officers are as follows: Fall semester — Don Freed, president; Jack Brown, vice-president; Bill Melvin, secretary; Allen Mierly, treasurer. Spring semester — Don Boyer, president; Bob Froelich, vice-president; Bob Kothe, secretary; Don Freed, treasurer.

Debate Club

Studying the subject of post-war planning, attending the annual Debater's Conference at Purdue, speaking of the P.T.A., service clubs, and religious groups, etc.—these were the activities of the Debate club and advanced speech students. The fact that transportation was a great problem to the group this year, did not keep it from carrying on its work locally. The club met as usual during the first semester but did not meet during the spring.

At the Debater's Conference at Purdue, which was held around December first, the debaters participated in inter-school debates. Arnold Brown Jr., who took part in the boys' Rotary Discussion contest this year, won the local contest while William Swihart and Tom Patton took second and third place.

The fall semester officers were: Elizabeth Larson, president; Mary Sproull, vice-president; Marcelle Hutschenreuter, treasurer; Betty McDowell, secretary; Mr. Smith, sponsor.

Forum Club

The Forum Club is organized for the purpose of better acquainting its members with our country and other countries through informal discussions with informed persons. Members have also had several speakers this year, and the club as a whole heard the city councils in action.

Officers: Dorothy Grames, president; Marilyn Buchanan, vice-president; Mary Anne Hollingsworth, secretary; Bud Brown, treasurer; Marilyn Buchanan, program chairman; Mr. Sproull, sponsor.

The Threshold

Originality plus, that's what made this year's two issues of the Threshold an interesting anthology of poetry and prose. The staff, headed by Willa Allen, selected the material for the Threshold from all types of poems, stories, and essays that were submitted by the English classes.

Staff members serving in the two semesters are:

Ushers Club

What would we do without the ushers club? They provide the school with efficient and courteous usher service, take care of all the social events held in the auditorium. The members also operate the check room at basketball games. These boys are ready to serve the school and the public whenever called upon.

The Art Club tries to bring a wider appreciation and understanding of art to its members.

The club offers wide and varied programs: Mr. Gerald Bloom, a well-known local artist, sketched before the club; Mr. Harold Wise showed colored films of the Mt. Rushmore Memorial; Miss Lillian Mahn talked about her trip to Mexico.

It is most certain that everyone has noticed the war posters the art students have placed in the halls and on the boards throughout the year. They also sponsor a poster service for all school organizations.

Due to the war it was impossible for the club to take its annual trip to Chicago with the sponsor, Miss Cole.

An epidemic of measles, a fickle southern belle, and girls who interfere with publishing of the school paper were the cause of great concern to Johnny and Spud, editor and business manager, in EVER SINCE EVE, a comedy in three acts, presented by the junior class on Friday evening, March 12.
The action of the play takes place in the Clover home in Johnny's old nursery room which has recently been turned into a newspaper office. Johnny, the editor, makes big plans for the Christmas issue of the PENGUIN, while his partner, Spud, worries about financing the paper. The trouble begins when these two come down with the measles and they are forced to leave the PENGUIN in the inexperienced hands of Suzan and Betsy who have been appointed to the staff much against the boys' wishes. Lucybelle from the old South, a mistaken wedding announcement, and Christmas prom dates only make matters worse for Spud and Johnny.

EVER SINCE EVE was directed by Mr. Ben Hudelson who was assisted by Phyllis Himebaugh, Margery Sickels, and James Garber. The properties committee was headed by Sally Wambaugh assisted by Willa Allen and Bessie Peterson. Costumes were arranged by Betty McDowell, Nancy Holloway, and Patricia Lamdon. The scenery was constructed and painted by Joe Van Huffel, Merrylyn Grove, Patricia Gilbert, Constance Polzoes, and Mary Black. Bill Jones directed make-up with Ruth Rose. Doris Volkman, and Elizabeth Darling as assistants. Taking care of the business end of the show were Eugene Anderson, business manager, and Dick Treckelo, advertising manager. The programs were designed by Mary Elizabeth Black.

"Almighty Father, We Thank Thee"

"Do you ever leave the couch?"

A costume drama entitled "The Barretts", written by Marjorie Carleton, was presented by the senior class of 1943, on the evening of Friday, May 14.

The scene of the play was laid in the living room of Elizabeth Barrett. The story reveals how the lives of the Barrett children were ruled by their domineering father. Near the end of the play, Elizabeth Barrett, the famous poetess, defies her father by eloping with Robert Browning, a rising young genius.

"The Barretts" was directed by Mr. Ben Hudelson. The student directors were Marcelle Hutschenreuter and Dick Crowley. The costumes were designed by Georgia Vasilas. The make-up was done by Bill Jones and Helen Patanelli. The scenery was built by Bud Brown, Joe Wollam, Elizabeth Gusstafson, and Dick Crowley. The property committee consisted of Maxine Eppers, Charlotte Denman, and Phyllis Fahenstock.

Other seniors who helped with the production of the play were: Marcia Frye and George Kistner, advertising managers; Jerry Humecke who was in charge of ticket sales, and Jim DeBoni, Margaret Volkert, Jeanne Ritter, Grace Gordon, Josephine Nadolny, Jean Diener, Gwen Stephens, Mary Francis Cook, team captains.

Pennant Annual

In accordance with the custom of the past, over fifty-five seniors slaved and sweated to publish the 1943 Pennant Annual. The combined efforts of the editorial, business, and advertising staffs working from October to May have turned out, as a finished product, 1050 yearbooks. We have attempted to portray pictorially the important events of the school year. Our yearbook reflects the wartime activities of the school, and suggests that certain qualities will endure after the war.

The Pennant Weekly

The Pennant Weekly, finding this year one of many changes due to the war, did its part in the effort by giving us the latest data on such activities as the scrap drive, the book drive, the emergency committees, the stamp sale reports, etc. Under the editorship of Phyllis Jeanne Platt, the paper also kept us informed about all the school activities, both business and social; it held our interest on sports, home room news, and gossip; in general, it succeeded to carry on its many purposes.
Credit is due to those people who made publishing of the Weekly possible: the editor; the business manager, Kenny Dettweiler; the ad manager, Marcelle Hutschenreuter, and the entire staff.

Instrumental Music Department

The Instrumental Music Department, under the direction of David Hughes, Director of Instrumental Music, Gerald Bettcher, Associate Director, Loretta Carlson, String Instructor, and students of the musical organizations of the Instrumental Music Department have geared their activities toward the war effort.

The High School Marching Band, numbering 135, (Ernestine Franklin, Drum Major) appeared at all home football games with special maneuvers and formations. The Marching Band was divided into four small pep bands which played for the home basketball games.

The series of four concerts given by the High School Band and Orchestra were heard by the largest audiences that have attended the concerts in the history of the school. The first concert of the High School Band and Orchestra, November 20, Mr. William Gowdy, Director of Vocal Music in the High School and Central Junior High School was soloist with the orchestra. Mary Kathryn Stemm, harpist in the High School Music organizations, was soloist with the Band.

The next concert, February 5, the auditorium was completely sold out and 100 chairs had to be added. Robert Reser, violinist and concertmeister of the orchestra, appeared as soloist with the orchestra. Soloists with the Band were Maxine Fields, cornetist, and Robert Bliss, marimba. Guest conductor on this concert was a former member of the Elkhart High School Band and Orchestra. Musician 2/c Marion Helm of the United States Navy.

The third concert of the year was presented on March 19. Jane Wills appeared as flute soloist with the orchestra and James Garber, clarinetist, and Wylan Becker, marimba, appeared as soloists with the Band.

The last concert was presented May 21, being dedicated to the senior band and orchestra members and seniors of the graduating class of 1943. Soloist with the orchestra was Marilynn Buchanan, cello, and Mary Kathryn Stemm, pianist. Soloists with the Band were Robert Lieberenz, trombone, and Clarabelle Blaser, accordion.

The Symphonic Band gave the musical prelude for the Sunday Evening Club, January 31. James Grove appeared as soloist with the band, and on January 10 the High School Symphonic Orchestra presented a half-hour musical program to the Sunday Evening Club. A variety program of one-half hour was presented before the Sunday Evening Club on March 21. Mr. William Gowdy, director of Vocal Music in the High School, and Sonia Johnson, marimba, appeared as soloists. A trio consisting of Robert Reser, Marilynn Buchanan, and Mary Kathryn Stemm appeared on the program also. A marimba ensemble of Allean Anderson, Helen Schult, Sonia Johnson, Gloria Stevenson, Wylan Becker, and Margaret Doll also appeared on the program.

The promotion of ticket sales, box office management, and ushers for the concerts was in charge of the Instrumental Music Parents Club, O. T. Workinger, president.

Some of the members of the Orchestra played at the Northern Indiana Teachers Convention at South Bend, October 22-23 under the direction of Mr. George Dasch.

Ensembles under the direction of Miss Loretta Carlson played for many civic and patriotic gatherings.

On the Annual Spring Concert of the Vocal Department, Maxine Yerke played the Mozart clarinet Quintet with Robert Reser, violin; Jack Witmer, second violin; Marjorie Miller, viola; and Audra Grove, cello.

A small portion of the band played at the C. G. Conn, Ltd., on December 7, 1943 when they received their Minute Man Flag.

On January 18 the full High School Band, consisting of 130 pieces and in uniform, had the opportunity of participating in the Army-Navy "E" ceremony at the Adams-Westlake Company here in Elkhart.

The Instrumental Music Department this year not only carried on their regular activities, but assumed responsibility to help out with music in the war effort on the home front. This was made possible by the fine cooperation of the school officials, Instrumental Music Parents Club, and the faculty.

The Annual Banquet for Graduating Seniors was held May 25, 1943 at the YWCA at 6:30 P. M. The Committee in charge was Beverly Ritter, chairman; Patricia Landon and James Garber.

War Service School Musicians

Students of the Instrumental Music Department have gone "all out" in every possible way they can in the war effort. Pep bands have played for bond sales, scrap drives, departure and selective service men, departure of all former members of the band and orchestra, entertainment of war workers and to help keep up the morale of the people in these trying days. Music students get 5 points for each appearance in a war activity.

The following students have received the basic award and 2 service stripes: Richard Church, Maxine Fields, Leland Slough, Claude Leist.

Elkhart a capella choir

The Elkhart High School a capella choir has had a very busy and successful year under the direction of William Gowdy.

In October the choir joined with some of the choirs of Northern Indiana and went to South Bend to sing at the state teachers convention. Olaf Christiansen directed the massed chorus of six hundred voices.

The choir has appeared in concerts twice this year. The first concert was given on December 13.

The following week the choir sang for the school Christmas program, forming a lovely musical background for the radio play.

The choir was asked to sing at the Sunday Evening Club program on February 21. They also entertained the parents and teachers at the P.T.A. meeting held on March 18.

The spring concert presented on April 30, in which they sang the "Ode to America," was the last public appearance of the choir.

An ensemble from the choir sang at the city-wide observance of Good Friday at the Elco Theater, April 23.

Several soloists and ensembles from the choir entered the all-city music contest held in the high school the week of May 10th.

They have elected the following officers: Don Willis, president; Charles Gordon, vice-president; Barbara Rowe, secretary-treasurer; Rosemarie Nye and Bob Stackhouse, social chairman.

Thursday Clubs

Applying the old adage that variety is the spice of life nearly thirty-five clubs have been formed, along the lines of a variety of interests, to meet on alternate Thursdays in the homeroom hour.

These clubs are not only fun, but also stimulate interest in vocations or avocations for the future. More than seventy-five percent of the students belong to the clubs pictured in the following pages.

The Camera Club

The Camera Club of 1942 - 1943 met in two sections because of a large enrollment. The advanced group was under the direction of Mr. Miller of the Science Dept., while the group of beginners was under the leadership of Mr. M. D. Meiser.

An effort was made to relate the activities of the two sections and on several occasions the two clubs met together. Activities of the clubs consisted of discussions on specific phases and problems of photography. Movies, print contests, and hikes provided diversion for the clubs. An evening meeting which was open to members of both sections was instituted to supplement the Thursday morning meetings because of the limited time and facilities available then.

Due to shortages in photographic materials, the work of the clubs was not as extensive as had been planned.

The officers were: First Semester — John Brumbaugh, president; Maurice Davis, secretary-treasurer. Second Semester — Bob Lerner, president; Maurice Davis, secretary-treasurer.

Junior Academy of Science

The Junior Academy of Science is a club organized for the purpose of stimulating interest in science. Knowledge is acquired by performing experiments not included in class work and by visiting places of scientific interest. The members profit by the opportunities offered to become acquainted with the members of the State Academy of Science with which we are affiliated.

The club attended the state meeting at Notre Dame in October. They worked out a project, "The Biology of Flight." They have also had various speakers on scientific subjects.

To become a member, certain requirements are necessary. Each year each member completes a notable project; some are recommended for membership in the State Academy of Science. The club is under the direction of Mr. Adams and Miss Wagoner.

Fall officers are: Harold Weaver, president; Eilleen Brock, vice-president; Marilyn Buchanan, secretary and treasurer. Spring officers are: Eileen Brock, president; Marilyn Buchanan, vice-president; Marilyn Everts, secretary and treasurer.

The Journalism Club

Features, human interest stories, news stories, sports articles, editorials, — these are the interests of the Journalism club. These future journalists divide themselves into small groups and practice writing all kinds of news. The final project of the year was to make a club newspaper.

The officers include: Bill Frink, president; Patricia Sollitt, vice-president; and Ina Mae Roll, secretary.

The sponsor is Miss Kelly.

Biology Club

The purpose of the Biology club is to further the interest of students in biology. The activities for the year consisted of individual projects. To be eligible for membership the following year, members must secure twenty-five points per year. These points are secured by undertaking certain projects. The club is sponsored by Miss Wagoner, Mr. Adams, and Mr. Updike.

Officers for first and second semesters are: Phyllis Hall, president; Ruth Ann Sears, first vice-president; Peggy Cole, second vice-president; Ernest Yeater, secretary.

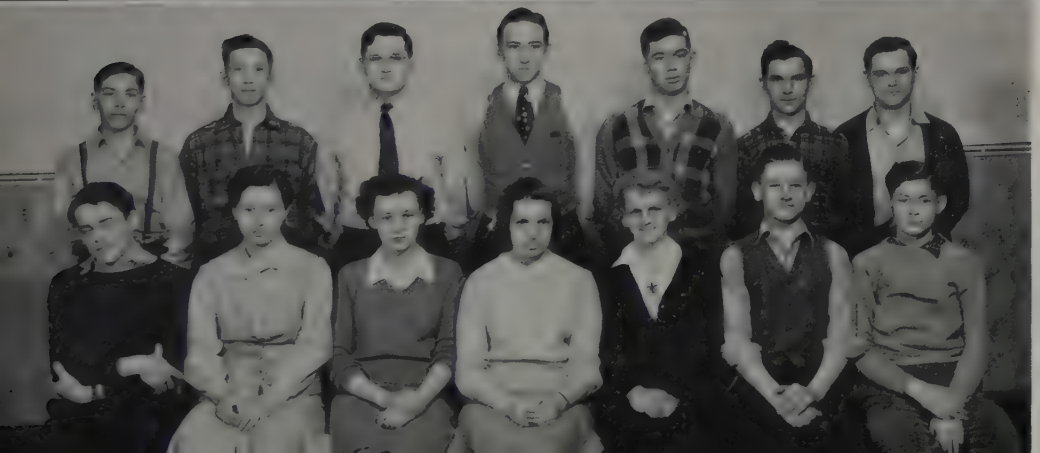
Model Airplane Club

The Model Airplane Club is sponsored by Mr. Niblock.

The purpose of the club is to promote the interest in building and flying models of all sizes. The club has enjoyed indoor and outdoor contests. Slides on aeronautical subjects were shown during many of the club periods.

Officers for the fall semester: John Lipscomb, president; Jim Tweedy, vice-president and program chairman; Jim Jones, secretary and treasurer; John Gilbert, sergeant-at arms.

Officers for the spring semester: Tom Monteith, president; Gerald Mast, vice-president and program chairman; Jim Jones, secretary and treasurer; John Gilbert, sergeant-at-arms.



Radio Code Club

Learning to send and receive the international Morse code, is the aim of the Radio Code Club. Knowledge of this code is helpful to students who will be able to use it in aviation and maritime service.

Aside from its usefulness in the vocational line, the fourteen members of the club find it a very interesting hobby.

Their secretary is Gwen Stephens, and their sponsor, Mr. Baughman.

Materials of Industry

The Materials of Industry Club was started for those who wanted to know more about the materials used in industry, and how they are used.

They have had reports on several vital materials now used in industry such as: asbestos, glass, steel.

Officers for the fall semester were: Bill Foy, president; Bob Bevington, secretary. Officers for the fall semester were: Dorothy Dick, president; Patricia May, secretary; Mr. Evans, sponsor.

Engineers Club

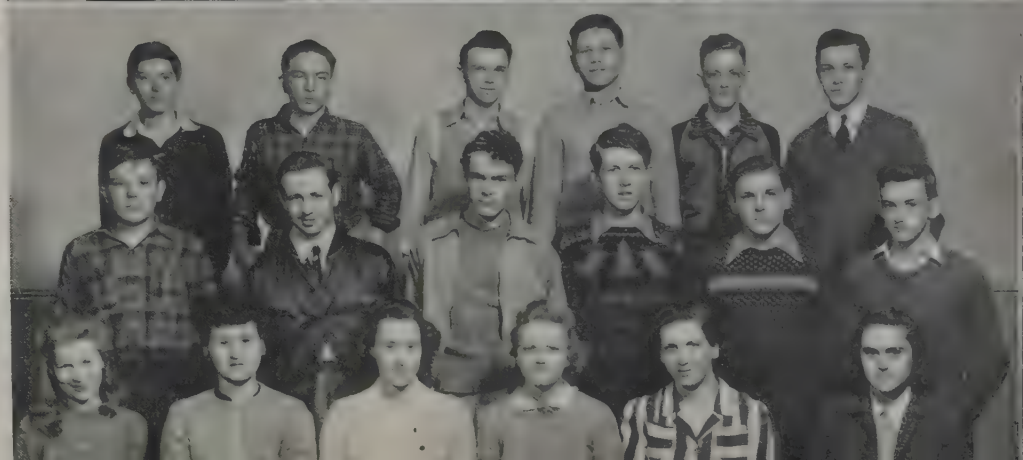
The members of the Engineers club have found a very interesting study in their search for knowledge about the major engineering projects of the world. They study, for example: the Boulder Dam, the Golden Gate Bridge, National highways, tunneling under the Hudson River, Grand Coulie Dam, etc. They are aided in their discussions by Mr. Foster, their sponsor.

The officers are: Robert Erwin, president; Dick Cressler, vice-president; Wayne Hostetler, secretary-treasurer.

Fix-It Club

The purpose of the Fix-It Club is to learn how to repair and take care of small but important articles in the home that cannot be replaced for the duration; thus they are helping in the war effort. Club meetings consist of discussions and demonstrations on saving and fixing such non-replaceable articles as: iron cords, furniture sockets, toasters, etc.

Officers: Fall and Spring — Margaret Meyer, president; Pauline Jennings, vice-president; Elouise Speener, secretary-treasurer; Mr. McGuirk, sponsor.



Needlecraft Club

(NUMBER ONE)

When it comes to knitting, embroidering, repairing and remodeling, these girls know all the answers.

During the club periods throughout the year, you could always find these girls and their sponsor, Miss Amsbaugh, clicking their needles.

Because of the present war conditions the girls spent much of their time on learning to conserve their clothing.

The officers for both semesters were: Dorothy Troyer, president; Doris Good, vice-president; Betty Grate, secretary.

Needlecraft Club

(NUMBER TWO)

Luncheon sets, dish towels, hand towels, buffet sets . . . these are a few examples of the kind of work the Needlecraft Club number two does.

Club members are primarily interested in learning to knit, sew, crochet, and embroider so that they might create, with their own skill, the decorative needle work which they may use in the future.

The club's sponsor is Miss Clendenen and the secretary-treasurer is Betty Schroeder.

The Sixty Plus Club

The Sixty Plus Club consists of thirty girls who are interested in improving their typing skill, in speed and accuracy, to a level of sixty words per minute or more. So far about twenty of the thirty girls have been able to write at this sixty-word level. The club is sponsored by Miss Clarice Robinson. There are no officers. At the meeting the girls usually have one-minute writings which are designed to increase their typing skill.

Slide Rule Club 1

For boys needing knowledge of slide rule computation, the Slide Rule club offers opportunity to learn and practice this skill. These boys, under the sponsorship of Mr. Glen Updike, have received instructions on the use of the slide rule. Many of them will use the knowledge they have gained in their plans for the future in industry or in the service.

The officers are: First Semester — Dick Hively, president; Glen Neff, secretary. Second Semester — Russ Denman, president; Dick Hively, secretary.

Slide Rule Club 2

The Slide Rule club was organized for the purpose of developing skill in such approximate computations as are needed in marine and air navigation and related trades. The junior group organized into a separate club because of the unusually large turnout of boys.

Bob Pickering and John Longfellow were elected president and secretary, respectively, and under these officers, the boys worked toward their goal and acquired a good basis of slide rule computation. Their sponsor is Mr. French.

Pan-American Club

Carrying out the Good Neighbor policy is the purpose of the Pan-American Club. In order to be a good neighbor, we of the United States must understand these South and Central American countries. At the meetings, discussions, movies, and lectures teach the members something of the racial background, language, customs and costumes of the various American Republics. The sponsor is Mr. Gemmecke.

First Semester Officers: Wylan Becker, president; Mary Anne Hollingsworth, vice-president and program chairman; Bob Wilcox, secretary-treasurer.

Second Semester Officers: Wylan Becker, president; Mary Anne Hollingsworth, vice-president and program chairman; Jean Diener, secretary-treasurer.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club has as its objective the promotion of the use of the Spanish language; therefore the members gain a more sympathetic understanding of Spanish-speaking peoples. The meetings are conducted in Spanish with games, talks, and songs in Spanish, and lectures by persons who have visited Latin-American countries. The club's sponsor is Miss King.

The officers are: Jeanne Swendeman, president; Beatrice Fisher, vice-president; Joyce Benell, secretary; Aileen Klingaman, treasurer; Ruth Weaver, social chairman; Carolyn Bonfiglio, program chairman; Helen Gause, assistant program chairman.

The Mythology Club

The purpose of the Mythology Club is to acquaint its members with Roman and Greek myths.

Students of the Latin 3 and Latin 4 classes are especially encouraged to become members as systematic information in regard to mythology belongs to the regular work in the Latin classes. At two of the club meetings "The Eastman Roman Life Slides" portrayed many episodes in mythology and represented some of the very finest and most famous paintings of the greatest artists.

Another meeting was made especially interesting when oracle of Apollo answered the questions of each club member concerning love, wealth, and vocations.

Officers for both semesters were: Margaret Bonfiglio, president; Barbara Rowe, vice-president; Eleanor Gates, secretary; Joyce Manges, treasurer; Phillip Monteith, program chairman; Mrs. S. Avery, sponsor.

Emergency Feeding

To determine the types of food available for feeding during a war-time emergency, to learn the preparation of such foods, and to prepare a group of students to handle any school emergency supplies that might be provided . . . these are the purposes of the Emergency Feeding Club. Interest in the club's work is furthered through reports and discussions on available foods and army rations.

The officers are: Fall semester — Doris Parrot, president; Dorothy Maxon, secretary. Spring semester — Jeanne Ritter, president; Justine Shriner, secretary. Sponsor, Miss DePew.

Figures for Fitness

Smooth figures, mental alertness, physical efficiency — these are the aims of the Figures for Fitness club. The fifteen girls, under the leadership of Miss Kolb, have taken several hikes, and have done various conditioning exercises and games. The club has no officers.

Social Arts Club

To have proper social etiquette at all times, is the aim of the members of the Social Arts Club. Their sponsor was Miss Dente, who assisted them in helpful research and practice on the art of becoming socially successful students.

The officers are as follows: Gloria Fredrickson, president; Marilyn Beck, vice-president; Marilyn King, secretary-treasurer; Phyllis Baker, program chairman; sergeant-at-arms, Mildred Wright.

The First Aid Club

(NUMBER ONE)

Bandages — splints — First Aid text books — anything that goes with first aid can be seen in Room 205 during the club periods.

Fainting— artificial respiration — pressure points and numerous other phases of First Aid were studied under the guidance of Miss Broughton.

The club members practiced many of the arts of First Aid, and enjoyed interesting demonstrations given by various groups of people.

Officers for both semesters were: Eleanor Rumell, president; Betty Riggle, vice-president; Jeannetta Shaw, secretary.

The First Aid Club

(SECTION TWO)

To foster an awareness in the need and importance of first aid is the purpose of the First Aid Number Two. The programs have centered around the following topics: purposes of first aid; general directions of first aid; care of wounds, shock, fainting, sunstroke and heat exhaustion, burns, pressure points, and bandages. Talks and demonstrations on these topics have been given by club members. They have also practiced bandaging at each meeting. A joint meeting of the two First Aid clubs was held, at which a number of Boy Scouts gave a demonstration of artificial respiration. The clubs have also had demonstrations of methods for transportation, pressure points, and application of bandages.

The officers for both semesters were: Nancy Wambaugh, president; Joan Lickey, vice-president; Mary Willy, secretary; Miss Sawyer, sponsor.

The Foreign Correpondence Club

The Foreign Correspondence Club is sponsored by Mr. Jordan.
The purpose of this club was formerly to write to people in foreign countries, but since the war has started, club members have been writing to boys in the service who went to Elkhart High at one time.

The club had as their main project this year, to raise money to send the Reader's Digest to boys in foreign service, but since the restrictions on foreign mail were made, the club sent the magazine to E.H.S. boys who are in service in the United States.

The club enjoyed many talks on how and what to write to the boys in service.

The officers for the fall semester were: Howard Thursby, president; Roger Verhagen, vice-president; Betty Flanders, secretary and treasurer; Lucille Battista, program chairman.

The officers for the spring semester were: Lucille Battista, president; Roger Verhagen, vice-president; Betty Flanders, secretary and treasurer; Sidnah Williams, program chairman.

Red Cross Volunteers

The Red Cross Volunteers meet at the Red Cross Building every club day to aid the Red Cross in volunteer work, such as typing, rolling bandages, or doing any other work as may be designated by the Red Cross. Their sponsor is Miss Jarvis.
First semester officers are: Elizabeth Larson, president; June Owen, vice-president; Helen McLain, secretary.

Second semester officers are: Elizabeth Larson, president; Mary Jane Dygert, vice-president; Helen McLain, secretary.

E. H. S. Conservation Club

The EHS Conservation Club assists in the propagation of wild life in several ways: pheasants are released; fish are raised; food and shelter are provided for the wild animals. To do this work, feeders are built which provide shelter and food and ponds are stocked with fish for breeding purposes.

The purpose of the club is to help protect and increase the wild life of the state, and to assist in the conservation of materials vital to the war effort.

Sponsors of the club are Mr. Wilbur Mater and Mr. W. E. Sands.

The first semester officers were: Roy Murphy, president; Bob Seidel, vice-president; Bob Hafer, secretary; Dick Gutermuth, treasurer, Bob Hafer, county delegate.

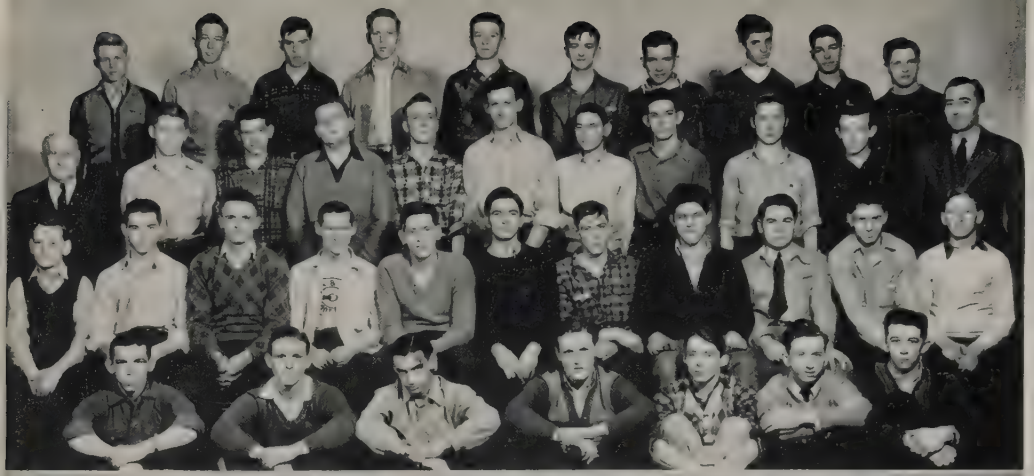
The second semester officers were: Bob Seidel, president; Tom Hoetger, vice-president; Bob Hafer, secretary; Dick Gutermuth, treasurer; Tom Hoetger, county delegate.

Drill Club

The Drill Club was organized in the fall of 1942 in response to a demand from the older boys of the high school for training in simple marching, drilling, and giving and taking orders. It is anticipated that the training received will materially aid the members of the club who are inducted into the armed services. Membership is made up of volunteers seventeen years of age or older.

Officers are: Arnold Brown, president; Vernon Middleton, vice-president; Harold Busenburg, secretary; Keith Simmons, treasurer.

Sponsors are Mr. Boone, Mr. Gill, and Mr. Glendening.



Sophomore Boys Sports

Sportsmanship, game rules, the value of sports, and "school spirit"—these are things the Sophomore Boys Sports Club work to accomplish.

At club meetings they have had discussions, and have also had interesting speakers who have given them interesting information on the subject of sports.

The club studied sports, both from a spectator's viewpoint and from a player's viewpoint.

First and second semester officers are: Jack Dily, president; Frank Cataldo, vice-president; Jim Hollibaugh, program chairman; Dick Hagans, secretary; Harold Meyers, sergeant-at-arms.

Their sponsors are Mr. Wiley and Mr. Kerr.

Stagecraft Club

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Organ, the stagecraft club gives its members both knowledge and experience in setting a stage. This includes all phases of stagecraft such as the public address system, spotlights, houselights, and scenery. The members have taken charge of the stage for school programs and others outside the school, such as the "Ballet Russe" and the marionette show. The programs have included talks on stagecraft and trips to theaters to see stage equipment.

The officers of the first semester were: James Ball, president; Jack English, vice-president; Jack Carlson, secretary.

THE COACHING STAFF

Seated — John Longfellow, Basketball; Chelsea Boone, Track; Harrison Berkey, Football; Raymond Sorenson, Tennis.
Standing — Riley Jordan, Treasurer EHSAA; Tony Campagnoli, Assistant Football; Robert Ersham, Assistant Basketball.

At the conclusion of the school year of sports, the Elkhart High School athletic teams are still out in front with a good average of wins over losses. This success is due not only to the quality of the players but to the coaches who sacrifice much to bring about the victories that we have so heartily enjoyed. For their unfailing help, unequaled service, and the unselfish use of so much of their own time . . . these men are honored:

JOHN LONGFELLOW

John was acclaimed by the student body, during a pep session last season, as the best coach in Indiana. Altho' covering a lot of territory, the truth of this is evident because in the past seasons as basketball coach in Elkhart High School, he has built up a record that isn't to be equaled by many coaches in the state. Not only does Coach Longfellow put out good teams, but he teaches the boys to play clean, sportsmanlike basketball.

CHELSEA BOONE

In all the years that a boy spends in E.H.S. sports, the person he remembers longest is "Chelse." Many good athletes have gone through the hands of this track coach, and if anyone takes the time to follow their careers, he will find that Boone's boys have made a definite mark in college sport records. Not every coach takes such a personal interest in the athletes under him; he has put many straying boys back on the beaten path with his sincere and friendly advice.

HARRISON P. BERKEY

Coach Berkey completed his first full season as head football coach this year, previously holding the position of line coach. Stepping into another man's shoes is often very difficult, but Coach Berkey took over the head position and steered the team to a better than average season. In addition to the normal worries of a coach, Berkey had to cope with the transportation problem and the even more difficult job of securing proper and good equipment for team use.

RAYMOND SORENSON

It was in 1935 that "Hap" started to coach tennis for Elkhart High School. He started off with an All-conference championship, winning from Hammond, 7-0. Last season, for the second time in seven years, he led his "racqueteers" to another All-conference championship. His netmen went through the conference season undefeated, a feat that no other Indiana team can boast.

RILEY JORDAN

In his official position of treasurer of the Athletic Association, Mr. Jordan has almost as much to do with the game as the coaches. It is through his efforts that the tickets are sold and the money is taken care of so that in the funds are available to supply the teams with the equipment so necessary to play the various sports properly and safely.

TONY CAMPAGNOLI

Line-coach Campagnoli plays a very vital part of football in building a smooth well-working machine from each fall's material. He is essential in every way in order to build up a team that wins. As Berkey's assistant, "Camp" takes the raw recruits and turns them into capable guards, tackles, and ends.

ROBERT EHRSAM

Coach Ehrsam does a gigantic job serving as second team coach, and taking care of the freshman team. Ehrsam coached his second team to a Northern Indiana High School Championship. His team was undefeated in both conference and non-conference play.

Baseball is to carry on in spite of the war and the difficulty to obtain transportation to and from the scheduled schools. Coach Kerr, in all of his years of coaching, has never failed to give his teams all of the benefits of his patience and experience, and the results have been high-ranking teams.

Gridiron Summary

Elkhart 31 — Lakeview 0

The Elkhart Blue Blazers opened their 1942 season with a 31 to 0 victory over Lakeview of Chicago. Coach Berkey expected a tougher game, and the Blazers completely outplayed the visiting team. Many "subs" were given an opportunity to play.

Elkhart 26 — Fort Wayne Central 7

The winners made their longest trip of the year to hand Central their only defeat of the season. The game was played on a wet and snowy field, and despite the opposition of the Fort Wayne Tigers, the Blazers slid through to victory.

Records and Results

Elkhart 20 LaPorte 7

The 20 to 7 win over the Slicers marked the third straight victory of the season for the Blazers. It was this game that opened their bid for the conference crown. The LaPorte linemen were tough and the team worked hard the whole game, with only two subs being used by Coach Berkey.

of the Blazer Season

Elkhart 6 — South Bend Riley 6

Ten thousand fans at School Field, South Bend, witnessed a game which proved to be a draw between the Blazers and the Riley Wildcats. The game was by no means dull, being highlighted by Tom Saunder's 90-yard "no score" run, by Bill Hardy's 59-yard jaunt, and by Dick Miceli's runs and passes.

Elkhart 7 — Mishawaka 8

After the half-time lead of 7 to 6, on a freak play that gave the Maroons an opportunity for a safety, the Berkey-men bowed to a strong Mishawaka eleven, 8 to 7. This was the first setback off the season for Elkhart and their first loss in two seasons of conference play.

Elkhart 6 — Michigan City 0

The Michigan City Red Devils were halted inches from the double-stripes as the game ended with the quarterback, Jim Peterson, tossing away a Michigan City scoring threat by intercepting a pass on the goal-line. The victory was costly, however, as Captain Bill Hardy was injured early in the first half and was lost to the squad for the next two games.

Elkhart 6 — Goshen 6

One of the most disputed games of the year, is the Goshen game. This year the score was a tie, a score which satisfies no one. After going scoreless for six straight seasons against Elkhart, the Red Menace ended this game with a flash, scoring a touchdown in the last few seconds. A pass from Dick Mick, a former Blazer player, made the final score.

Elkhart 28 — Fort Wayne North Side 0

For the first time in prep football history, the Blazers met the North Side team on Rice field, and they came away victorious. The Blazers featured a 98-yard touchdown run by Dick Miceli, in spite of rain, sleet, and snow.

Elkhart 6 — South Bend Central 20

Before a shivering crowd at Rice Stadium, the Blazers brought the 1942 football season to a close by bowing to a superior Central eleven, a veteran team which played its best game of the season against the Blazers. The Bears piled up a 20 to 6 score against the Elkhart gridders.

The Blazers in Review

As injuries come and go, they certainly came to the Blazers last fall. In every game of the season there was at least one first team man unable to start the game because of injuries or sickness. Due to this, several "stars were born" because of their ability to fill in the vacancies. Bill Jones made his way to the first team through his stellar defensive game. Haddie Meyers filled in Conant's position when he was ill. Many subs proved their value to the team.

At the annual football banquet, Tom Saunders, utility man for the team, was voted most valuable player and Bill Foy, junior first team guard, was elected to the captaincy of the 1943 team.

CAPTAIN BILL HARDY

One of the most valuable men that Elkhart team has had in the last several years. He was voted most valuable player of the 1941 season. Bill was awarded all-conference honors in his freshman and sophomore years. Capt. Hardy was handicapped this season with a wrenched knee, but this didn't stop him from being the high scorer for the Blazers for the third straight year.

The 1943 Basketball

Elkhart opened the 1942-43 season with easy wins from Bristol (47-22) and Jimtown (40-25) and handed Riley its first setback of the season, 37-34.

The initial conference victory over South Bend Washington was easily accomplished by a score of 48-29 and a 53-40 decision over a southern Indiana Greensburg quintet gave Elkhart a record of five wins and no losses.

Aggressiveness and control of the backboards by Goshen brought about a 26-31 defeat. The following week the Blazers defeated a stubborn LaPorte team, 38-20.

An inspired Michigan City club defeated Elkhart by a score of 43-38. The next night Warsaw extended its home floor record to twenty-three consecutive victories by beating the Blazers, 36-35.

Losing by a score of 36-25 to Mishawaka brought the season's record to six wins and four losses.

The following week Ft. Wayne North Side was forced to play Elkhart's style of game and was beaten by a score of 39-26.

Nappanee was overwhelmed 55-33 but the next night a fast-breaking Ft. Wayne Central club gradually pulled away from the Blazers and won, 46-34. This team went on to win the state tournament.

The state's top-ranking team and conference leader, South Bend Central, defeated Elkhart in an exciting overtime battle. Behind eight points with two minutes to go, the Blazers rallied to tie the score just as the gun cracked. An eight-point splurge in the overtime, this time by Central, made the final score 35-41 in favor of the Bears.

Fight, determination, and a stubborn defense resulted in a 32-20 revenge victory over the Goshen Redskins.

Displaying that typical Riley spirit, the Wildcats trounced the Blazers, 45-22, but the following Friday, John Adams was defeated in an exciting game, 44-43.

TOURNAMENT

Although Elkhart drew the four toughest teams in the county, we were favored to win the sectional tournament at Nappanee.

The first game on Friday afternoon started out to be a typical Elkhart-Wakarusa dog fight. The Blazers cut loose the third quarter, however, and pulled away to win, 45-33.

Lacking height and size, an inspired Concord team made trouble for Elkhart in the entire game before bowing out by a score of 47-42.

Then at night came the Elkhart-Goshen game. Each team had beaten the other during the season. Each team felt that they had to win this game. The Blazers met power with power and inspiration with inspiration to defeat the Redkins, 37-34.

Setting a new single game scoring record for tournament play, the Blazers defeated the Nappanee Bulldogs, 70-46, to win the 1943 sectional tournament. The 199 points scored by Elkhart in their four game march to victory was also a record.

The following week Elkhart played South Bend Central in the second game of the regionals at the John Adams gym in South Bend. A confident and aggressive Elkhart team refused to be impressed by Central's reputation as the state's top-ranking team and upset the Bears, 47-43. By beating Central the Blazers accomplished the biggest upset during the entire state tournament.

In the final game a tired Elkhart team outscored a fast-breaking Rochester quintet for three-quarters before physically bowing out in the last six minutes of the gruelling battle. The final score was 52-41 in favor of Rochester's Zebras.

Thus ended Elkhart's best season in four years. The greatness of this team was represented by its tournament record. Losing several close ball games and having only an average season, the Blazers during the tournament ironed out all difficulties and displayed outstanding ability. The 1943 Blue Blazers well deserve to be ranked along with Elkhart's best basketball teams.

TOTALS: WON 15; LOST 8.

The E. H. S. Reserves

The varsity squad wasn't the only team to bring honors to our school; Coach Robert Ehrsam's second team went through the season undefeated and won the Eastern Division Northern Indiana High School reserve team conference. This was the first reserve squad to complete the season undefeated since John Longfellow has coached here.

Scoring a total of 403 points to the 305 points amassed by the opposing teams, the Shortfellows were led in scoring by Bill Elliott, sophomore guard, with 44 field goals and 14 free throws for a total of 102 points. Following Elliott in scoring was forward Tom Juday, who collected a total of 61 points and Jack Diley, who totaled 58 points . . . Juday was also named as free throw champion of the second team, connecting with better than 65 percent of his charity attempts. Other players who made good showings were Bob Weldy, center; and Gordon Stock and Dick Weaver, guards.

Coach Ehrsam's "champs" should provide valuable replacement material for Coach Longfellow's varsity squad of next season.

Also under Coach Robert Ehrsam, the Freshman A's won the interclass league, losing only two games to other interclass teams. Then, at the end of the interclass league, the A's won the interclass tournament to hold both interclass championships. The freshmen also played three games outside of the school, two with Mishawaka and one with Concord, winning all three games.

Many of the boys on the freshman team played as alternates on the reserve team and are expected to play as regulars on that team next season.

Tops in Tennis

The only athletic team in the high school to take top honors this year was Coach Raymond ("Hap") Sorensen's E.H.S. tennis squad who won, for the second time in Coach Sorensen's regime, the crown of the Northern Indiana High School Conference.

Going through their eastern division conference schedule without a loss, the Blazer netmen kept right on the winning trail and trounced Emerson of Gary, winner of the western division, 5-0, at Gary, November 16, to gain the championship title.

Following is a complete list of matches played last fall:

TENNIS SCHEDULE

Matches for fall of '42:

Sept. 15 — Elkhart 5, Mishawaka 0.
Sept. 17 — Elkhart 4, LaPorte 1.
Sept. 24 — Elkhart 5, S. B. Central 0.
Sept. 29 — Elkhart 3, Michigan City 2.
Oct. 1 — Elkhart 2, Riley 0 (forfeit).
Oct. 6 — Elkhart 5, S. B. Adams 0.
Oct. 7 — Elkhart 5, Nappanee 0.

End of Eastern Division conference play.

Oct. 28 — Elkhart, 7, Howe Military Academy 0 (practice match).

Nov. 16 — Elkhart 5, Emerson of Gary 0.
(NIHSC East-West play-off match)

Schedule for spring of '43:

April 22 — Kalamazoo State High, there.
April 28 — Howe Military Academy, here.
May 11 — Dowagiac, here.
May 13 — Kalamazoo State High, here.
May 15 — Howe Military Academy, there.
May 18 — Dowagiac, there.

Let's look at the individuals on this undefeated team.

Leading player for the "champs" last fall, was Gerhard "Kal" Kalkofen, runner-up to the Indiana state singles title, who has been undefeated in four years of conference single play.

Jim Ebersole, captain and No. 2 player, was undefeated in his third year of conference singles play and was re-elected this spring for the captaincy of the '43 squad.

Richard Gutermuth, who played in the No. 3 spot, completed his fourth year of conference singles with only one loss.

With only three singles matches played in conference meets, the No. 4 and 5 men, freshman Bob Bugh and Bill Borneman, sophomore, competed only in doubles. Pairing either with Gutermuth or Borneman for the No. 2 doubles team, Bugh finished the season undefeated in six such matches. Borneman was undefeated in the three doubles matches in which he competed.

Other letter winners included Bob Sorensen and Eugene Ellis, who played in two doubles matches.

Although Coach Sorensen was doubtful last fall as to whether the spring practice matches would be held this year as usual, the netmen have several contests scheduled this spring with non-conference schools. The league season next fall will consist of a one-day tournament of all eastern division schools to be held here September 25.

Cinder-path and Field Record

The Blue Streaks were hard hit by graduation, the draft, and enlistment. They have, however, a goodly number of underclassmen who in the next year will undoubtedly develop into good athletes.

Because the captain, Glenn Butler, enlisted in the Army Air Corps, the second highest point winner, Henry Crussemyer, was awarded the title of captain.

The following names represent the contenders in the various events:

SHOT PUT — Bruce Sellers, Jim Peterson, Jack Rhinehimer.

BROAD JUMP — Henry Crussemyer, Johnnie Longfellow, Charles Gordon.

POLE VAULT — Gordon Stock, Elmo Emerson.

DASHES — Henry Crussemyer, Gordon Stock, Jack Diley.

MIDDLE DISTANCE RUNS — Arnold Brown, Bud Wiley, Tom Patton, Tom Kern, Dick Stutsman.

LONG DISTANCE — Joe Rench, Jack Miller, Roland Pippenger, Jim DeBoni.

LOW HURDLES — John Longfellow, Jim Foster, Elmo Emerson.

MILE RELAY TEAM — Tom Patton, Arnold Brown, Dick Stutsman, Rolland Pippinger, Charles Gordon.

HALF-MILE RELAY — Henry Crussemyer, Gordon Stock, Johnnie Stock, Arnold Brown.

Cross Country Season Summaries

Getting into their stride

The Elkhart cross country team finished the season with a much better win average than that of losses.

The harriers started the season by beating Riley of South Bend on September 23 with a margin of 9 points, 24 to 33.

Then after running away from LaPorte on September 29, the tally being 16 to 41, they repeated a week later on October 6, drubbing them, 20 to 35.

On October 10, Elkhart lost their first cross country meet at the heels of Ashley Hawks Inc. of Fort Wayne, 42 to 18.

October 13, the boys, with flying spikes, ran against Riley for the second time in the season, outrunning them 26 to 30.

Then came the upset meet of the season when a coachless South Bend Central team beat our over-confident harriers, 31 to 25.

After receiving their embarrassing defeat from Central, the locals invited them over to Elkhart to defeat them 23 to 33.

On November 2, the annual quadrangular meet was held at the beautiful Erskine golf course. outside of South Bend. Elkhart won; LaPorte was a close second. The sco-es were Elkhart 41, LaPorte 43, South Bend Riley 50, South Bend Central 81.

Baseball Carries On in Spite of War

Last fall, baseball's possibility of existence was in doubt, but in the spring, school officials decided to include it in the calendar of sports.

With only one member of last year's varsity, Bob Ervin, left, Coach Kerr had to fill the remainder of the squad positions largely from inexperienced material. Loss of Gene Phillips, star right-hander and pitcher, and Chuck Salee, pitcher, caused vacancies on the mound that were hard to fill. Bob Ervin and Merle Timmons have been used to fill these gaps, with Ned Kreps on the receiving end of the battery.

Other rookies include: Bob Pickering; Vern Atwater, brother of "Spic" Atwater, now minor pro leaguer; Jack Hobson; Glenn Banks; John Ball; Frank Holloway; Jack Witmer; Dick Brown; Ronald Stump; Art Brickman; Jim Talbott; Rollin Ort; Keith Sensenbaugh; Wallace Klingelhofer; Bob Everett; Bob Lieberenz; and Bob Primivera.

The schedule for the spring season was as follows:

April 23	LaPorte	There
April 26	South Bend Adams	Here
April 30	South Bend Washington	There
May 4	South Bend Central	Here
May 7	Bye
May 11	Michigan City	Here
May 14	Mishawaka	There
May 18	Nappanee	There
May 21	South Bend Riley	Here

This Array of Glamour and Pulchritude is the Discobolus Club

Discobolus Club

The Discobolus Club increased its membership again this year. Under the guidance of their new sponsor, Miss Theodora Kolb, the club had a very successful season.

The officers elected for the first semester were as follows: Charlotte Denman, president; Mary Sproull, vice-president; Juanita Peters, secretary; Helen Patanelli, treasurer; Virginia Miceli, social chairman; Norma Heeter, sergeant-at-arms.

Second semester officers were: Charlotte Denman, president; Mary Sproull, vice-president; Juanita Peters, secretary; Helen Parker, treasurer; Norma Jean Treckelo, social chairman; Virginia Miceli, sergeant-at-arms.

On October 6th the initiation party was held at Studebaker park. The main event of the evening was a softball game in which the old members challenged a team selected from one hundred and seventy-five new members. Thirty new members were initiated at the beginning of the second semester.

The club sold candy at the Elkhart-Jimtown and Elkhart-Goshen basketball game. March 10th the girls had a home-made candy sale. Proceeds for these are used for club expenses.

Living up to their motto: "A sport for every girl, and every girl a good sport," the members enjoyed badminton, tennis, basketball, bowling, swimming, archery and fencing, as the season for each sport rolled around.

The managers for each sport were as follows: badminton, Ann Cronk; basketball, Phyllis Bates; archery, Lucille Battista; swimming, Mary Sproull; fencing, Pat Cullen; and bowling, Joan Van Bergen and Bunny Parker.

The usual singles and doubles tournament was held in badminton with Phyllis Bates winning the singles and Phyllis Bates and Charlotte Denman winning the doubles. Ann Cronk and Marge Monger were second.

A class basketball tournament was held in which the seniors won first place and received gold ribbons.

High scores for the first semester achery were won by Lucille Battista, Ann Cronk, and Marilyn Darr.

Again this year bowling was the most popular sport which made it necessary to have it twice a week. To climax the season an interclass bowling tourney was held. The senior team composed of Norma Lanni, Vivian Schenk, Joyce Walters, Miriam Myers and Charlotte Denman won the tourney.

The annual spring banquet was held at the Y.W.C.A. May 7, at which time awards were given to outstanding girl athletes in each sport. The theme this year was "On Guard" and the color scheme was blue and white. The girls were all very happy to have Miss Josephine Lafler, former sponsor, back for a main speaker of the evening.

Pins awarded to the highest averaged bowling team went to Betty Duesler, Jean Farrell, Elizabeth Clayton, Jean Gill, and Charlotte Denman. The highest individual bowling trophy was awarded to Charlotte Denman. The senior members of the varsity basketball team, Phyllis Bates, Miriam Myers, and Charlotte Denman received silver basketballs. Recognition was also given to the remaining member of the varsity squad, Martejo Kline, Betty Osterloo and Margaret Shelly. Lucille Battista won the fencing pin. Phyllis Bates was awarded the badminton singles trophy.

THIS YEAR
WHEN IT'S HOMES FOR WAR WORKERS
OR TOMORROW
WHEN IT'S VACATION TIME

REMEMBER —

"ANY PLACE IS HOME IN A SCHULT TRAILER!"

● Larger, roomier — more luxurious than ever before — a modern Schult trailer is the last word in a comfortable, convenient home-on-wheels. Generously proportioned . . . Cleverly designed . . . Skillfully engineered . . . to provide a maximum of living and working space. An undreamed-of degree of homey-ness and comfort. Interior arrangements include private bedrooms, dinettes or davenports — you'll find JUST the set-up YOU want, with lots of drawer, shelf and storage space. Ready right now! Step up and pick yours out at any Schult dealer's!

YOU GET MORE
IN A SCHULT

Tops in value, a Schult trailer offers you better design and engineering, more usable space, better heating and insulation, more restful beds, finer finish and furnishings — for your money—than any other trailer. Don't take our word for it — inspect a Schult trailer at your dealer's . . . You'll see why there are MORE Schult trailers in use today than any other.

A Graduate at Work

E. H. S. ALUMNI CARRY ON

A few years ago this young woman, Helen Griner, received her diploma from Elkhart High School. In 1938, to be exact. Today she is engaged at Miles Laboratories in work for which she is especially well suited. This picture shows her measuring the "degree of ionization," or the amount of acidity or alkalinity active in pharmaceutical preparations during the course of research.

To anyone not understanding such subjects, this sounds rather involved. But it provides good evidence that once an E. H. S. graduate, boy or girl, goes out into the business world, he or she can soon prove worthy to take up important tasks.

Work at Miles Laboratories is interesting because this organization, through constant scientific research, is striving to find new ways of relieving the ills of mankind. Also, during the war, it is doing its share for the government by providing components for the Army "Ration K" that you may have heard about.

Many E. H. S. alumni are helping to carry on this work, in our manufacturing departments, our research laboratories, and our office. Without these alumni, many accomplishments of our organization, including the great success of Alka-Seltzer and One-A-Day (brand) Vitamin Tablets, would have been much harder to achieve.

NORTH END RESTAURANT

Swimming and diving is the best of exercise and pays big dividends in health and happiness.

There is nothing better to develop the body and there is no pleasanter form of exercise in "the good old summertime."

That is why we call the HIGH DIVE "The Place of Happiness".

When you go to the High Dive, if you have no one to go with you, go alone and make new friends and you can learn to swim in 1943 by going a few times, as the weight of your body is only a few pounds more than the water.

After one knows how to swim, you will for all time hereafter enjoy canoeing and boating much more on our many lakes and streams in this district, as you will always have that safe feeling, by knowing how to swim.

Admission 25 cents with public dressing rooms.

Admission 50 cents with private dressing room.

IN BUILDING THE BRIDGE OF SHIPS

AND MANIFOLD VALVES SPEED THE VICTORY

NIBCO WROT fittings have long been used in building ships of war as well as peace . . . in refrigeration and air conditioning machinery, water and fuel lines, and in scores of vital points where only copper and brass can stand the shock of gunfire or the corrosive action of salt water. Today NIBCO VALVES . . . multiple and manifold cast bronze valves of infinite variety are playing an even bigger part. NIBCO Engineering which developed the WROT fitting formed in one step from a straight tube of copper, is again triumphing over mechanical problems and developing new processes to help win the war. Today our facilities are 100% at work for war . . . but in the day that is coming . . . we'll need you and you'll need us.
